R Thank you for contacting Google Ads. Hi, my name is Rahul. I hope you are doing well today!

Rahul · 9:09 PM

Good Day

Attached hereto are some ads that are presented against me in court on a paper print out. I never placed these ads nor have ever seen them before and kijiji confirmed that yesterday. When I Google my phone number nothing appears corresponding to these ads on the printout. I only want to know if these ads ever existed on Google under my phone number 416-880-3134 from 2018 until now.

R I apologize to hear your situation

However the screenshot you shared does not seem to be an ad

As there is no Ad icon which means it is an ad

It seems to be an organic listing

I communicated this with kijiji and they had nothing on their data base and told me to check with Google.

R I understand however this is Google Ads support and the screenshot you shared does not show that these are ads

Rahul · 9:15 PM

I am in a contested divorce proceeding and my ex-spouse presented this print out as evidence that I have unlawfully stolen and sold her belongings.

I understand but does my phone number 416-880-3134 help to see if anything of such nature matching that print out ever existed?

These alleged ads portray a website call KIJJI.ca in Canada which is similar to Craigs list in united states

9:19 PM

R I really apologize and I completely understand your situation but with phone number I cannot find any account

Please share your email address

Let me try with it

thank you kindly

9:21 PM

R Thank you for staying connected

However, The provided email provided did not fetch any account

So no Google Ads account

Rahul · 9:24 PM

Is it possible that the printout is created on photoshop or something and is portraying the alleged ads to have existed on Google? Because these were presented in 2018-2019 and even at that time I could not see these ads by Googling my phone number 416-880-3134

9:27 PM

R I am not sure about those technical work

However if you have account with Google Ads then it should reflect however I have checked both the accounts

However if you have account with Google Ads then it should reflect however I have checked both the accounts

And I was not able to get any information about any account

Rahul · 9:29 PM

Typically if you google your phone number anything associate with that number will appear. I never had an Ad account with Google

9:30 PM

R We can only tell if that is related to Google Ads however the screenshot images does not show it is Ads

these might be organic searches

Rahul · 9:32 PM

ex-spouse is claiming that the printout attached hereto was retrieved by Googling my phone number

9:32 PM

R and We dont support organic search

Rahul · 9:32 PM

O.K is there another department of Google that supports that?

9:32 PM

R Google so many products and it is working with all those department
